November 2007

GOOD TIMES GAZETTE

ARE YOU READY TO RIDE?

Snowmobile season is right around the corner, why not make this the best season yet by riding a new Polaris snowmobile? We've got a great selection of the HOT 2008 models in stock as well as some great deals on new non-current models! If you haven't had a chance to check out the new models from Polaris in person do yourself a favor and stop in today and let us show you why Polaris makes the best riding and handling snowmobiles! The IQ chassis can be found on almost every new model and there's a reason, it's the best riding, best handling, most comfortable chassis on the market! Polaris has a great selection of models from high performance to 2-up touring models, let us help you find the perfect snowmobile for this upcoming season!

Polaris is offering some super rebates on new non-current '06 and '07 snowmobile models, call for availability and pricing! Don't wait, these deals won't last long!

This snowmobile season we've decided to schedule some trail rides leaving from our shop! The rides will have a set destination, possibly a restaurant for dinner and should be a lot of fun! This will be a great way for you to meet fellow riders and see some new countryside! Keep an eye out in the newsletter and on our website for details on these upcoming rides! If you have any ride suggestions contact Corey!

2008 POLARIS PERFORMANCE SNOWMOBILE'S - OWN THE RIDE

600 RR

Do you consider yourself to be an aggressive rider? Need a sled that can take the deepest bumps? The 600RR is the sled for you! This big bump sled is based of the championship winning IQ 440 race sled, you get the same rugged chassis the racers use! The 600RR comes with high end walker evens shocks, 1.25" rip saw track plus more! Supply is limited, hurry in!

Dragon

With the success of the Dragon package the last few seasons Polaris has released a complete line of Dragon's for 2008. Choose from either a 125hp 600HO or 140hp 700, both are fuel injected 2-strokes. If you'd rather have a 4-stroke that's no problem, Polaris has a stout 150hp Turbo Dragon as well! All come with the new RYDE FX air shocks and 1.25" rip saw tracks!

IQ 700

ALL NEW for 2008 is the IQ 700 performance trail sled! With features like a 140hp 700cc fuel injected 2-stroke motor, reverse, light weight IQ RAW chassis, 1" camoplast hacksaw track and the most comfortable riding position in the industry the IQ 700 is hard to beat! The IQ 700 is going to be a hot seller this season so hurry in to get yours today!

Shift

The ALL NEW Shift is the essence and heritage of Polaris, with the latest in design and technology! Even with a low $6999 price the Shift comes standard with the sharp handling and smooth riding IQ chassis, 120hp 600 HO motor, reverse, and analog gauge package! The Shift is high performance value! Come check out our Monster Energy edition Shift today!

Is your riding gear worn out or dated? If so stop in and check out our selection of winter riding gear including jackets, bibs, helmets, gloves, boots, face masks, neck warmers plus more! We've got the awesome looking 2008 Polaris snowmobile gear in stock, women's sizes too! Helmets from Polaris including their anti-fog AF-1 helmet and the VEGA Altura - featuring a great looking graphics design! Electric shields in stock - never deal with a froze over face shield again! To show your Polaris pride off the trail we've got a great selection of casual wear in stock including t-shirts, hoodys, caps and beanies!
