

General Scholarships

Magen Fields

Amarillo, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Amarillo Campus

"After moving to Lubbock for my undergraduate career and then marrying a Texas Panhandle native, I saw an opportunity to practice in a rural setting. My career goals are centered around the heart of West Texas, the small towns."

Elise Johnson

Lubbock, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Lubbock Campus

"Pharmacy is a major part of ensuring the wellness of the community and I plan to use my education to benefit those with limited health care access."

Nathan Skaggs

Odessa, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Lubbock Campus

"After graduation I will return to Odessa and eventually become the operator of my dad's business. My goal is to continuously learn how to be a great leader, role model, businessman and pharmacist."

D'Neise Laverty

Hart, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Amarillo Campus

"My experiences make me confident that I have chosen a great career path. I've spent my entire life in the Texas Panhandle, and know this is where I want to live out my life and raise my family."

Matthew Sanders

Dimmitt, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Amarillo Campus

"It is my ultimate goal to own an independent pharmacy in a small town in rural West Texas. I love this area, this is where my family is from and lives, and I want to serve a small community where I can raise a family."

Scholarship Recipients

2010

Robert Stanley Memorial Scholarship

Leah Schumpert
Lubbock, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Amarillo Campus

"I love thinking about what I am going to do in the next chapter of my life. I know that whatever practice I choose should have direct patient interaction."

Amerisource Bergen Scholarship

Mahsa Fardin

Abilene Campus

"My long term goals after graduation are to participate in different residency programs and get involved in research focused on incurable diseases such as AIDS and cancer."

Roberta High R.Ph. Endowed Scholarship

Joshua Long
Vernon, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Amarillo Campus

"After graduating, I plan on becoming a pharmacist who is readily involved within the West Texas community. West Texas is where my roots are firmly planted."

Lori Campbell
Abilene, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Abilene Campus

"I have gained more personal skills because Abilene is such a "small world" that you can easily get to know your patients. I feel that this will make me a pharmacist who is willing to go above and beyond for my patients."

United Supermarkets Endowed Scholarship

Na'Lyn Swartz
Floydada, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Lubbock Campus

"I want to stay in West Texas since my family is from around this area. I have considered doing clinical pharmacy, but love the retail atmosphere."

Martha Atkinson Endowed Scholarship

Ashlee Flowers
Spearman, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Lubbock Campus

"Even in a larger town, I was still able to have the interaction and personal assistance I loved in the smaller communities, which is where my dream and heart belongs."

Eakman Family Scholarship

Stacey Jordan
Abilene, TX
Texas Tech School of Pharmacy
Abilene Campus

"Being involved in community and pharmacy-related activities has molded me into the person I am today. I believe that my hard work, perseverance, and caring attitude will help me to be the best pharmacist possible."

Lonnie F. Hollingsworth R.Ph. Scholarship

Benjamin McNabb
