SOLID PERFORMANCE FROM TEAM IN RAIN SOAKED EVENT

Tremblay and Broberg lead team in unusual weather

St. Cloud, Minnesota January 24, 2010 – Battling both the weather and other racers the Warnert Race Team posted solid results in both the Pro and Semi-Pro classes this weekend. Canterbury Downs horse racing facility was host to round 4 of the ISOC Championship sno-cross series, and proved to be a challenge for racers and mechanics as it rained both late Friday and all day Saturday.

Building on last week's win, first year pro Tim Tremblay continues to impress with strong, consistent qualifying and even better efforts in the finals. This week he put his NSK Open Mod Ski-Doo on the podium and backed it up with a 4th in the Pro Stock class. Even with his success Tremblay remains humble and thanked his sponsors NSK, Ski-Doo, Stud Boy and acknowledged the entire team from the podium.

Justin Broberg on his SSI Decals sled delivered again with a second in Semi-Pro Open Friday night. Then on Saturday he finished the Stock class in fourth after leading early and coming back from a black flag penalty for passing under yellow. His teammate Dylan Martin on the NSK machine had a solid performance with a 3rd in Open and 5th in Stock. Darrin Mees ran hard on his XPS sponsored machine to finish 5th in Open, but suffered a crash in the Semi-Pro Stock final that stopped the race – he returned to the track after being attended to a little worse for the wear.
