PUBLIC OFF-ROAD RIDING AREAS:

George Washington and Jefferson National Forests: Driving for pleasure, including off-highway recreational vehicles, is one of the many uses of national forest lands. At the same time, it is recognized that improper handling of an off-highway vehicle (OHV) can damage the resources of these lands. Because of this potential impact, the driver must assume responsibility for proper vehicle operation. Main page <http://www.fs.fed.us/r8/gwj/recreation/ohv/index.shtml>

The Lee Ranger District near Edinburg and Woodstock, VA has close to 40 miles of motorized OHV trails. These are grouped together on the Massanutten Mountain, along the west side, between Moreland Gap Road and the Woodstock Tower Road. There is a parking area at the north end, off the tower road, and in the center, in Edinburg Gap, where there is also a restroom. Off-Highway vehicles (OHVs) include four-wheel drive vehicles, motorcycles, motorbikes, and all-terrain vehicles (ATVs). Main page: <http://www.fs.fed.us/r8/gwj/lee/recreation/ohv/index.shtml>
